For growing outdoors. Hardy plant.

These charming native wild flowers are recommended for planting in woodland nooks, under trees and shrubs, or in shady portions of the perennial border. They bloom at the same time and combine beautifully with yellow Daffodils. 3 for $1.10; 10 for $3.45; 25 for $8.15.

OXALIS

For indoor growing. Not hardy.

Very attractive hanging pot plants and easily grown in the home. The leaves, similar to those of Clover together with the interesting colorful flowers are reason enough for their long lasting popularity. Plant about 5 bulbs in a pot and grow in a cool room.

FREESIAS

For growing indoors. Not hardy.

These colorful, fragrant blooms are really among the most attractive of Winter flowers. Large numbers are grown annually in greenhouse establishments, but they will also do very well if grown in the sunny windows of a cool room or sun parlor. It is impossible, however, to grow them in the warm temperature of the average living room.

Plant about 6 bulbs in a 6-inch pot. Use a light, moderately rich, fibrous soil. Water generously immediately after planting and then less freely until the plants are well started. Plenty of water and sunshine are required as they approach flowering.

APPLE BLOSSOM. Very pleasing, large blooms of delicate pink. 10 for $1.55; 25 for $3.70; 100 for $14.00.

CALLA LILIES

Delivery—November.

For growing indoors. Not hardy.

Callas really need no introduction to the general public but few know how easily they may be grown in the home. Planted in pots, in well-enriched loam and kept well watered, they will make a rapid growth and will start to bloom in only a few weeks, and continue for months.

BLACK CALLA (Arum pictum). A large, purple-black flower, shading to maroon as it ages. An interesting oddity and well worth trying in the winter window garden. Each, 85c; 3 for $2.35; 10 for $7.00.

GOLDEN CALLA (Elliottiana). Illustrated. Pure golden yellow. Foliage distinctly spotted white. Each, 65c; 3 for $1.85; 10 for $5.85.

PINK CALLA (Rehmanni). A most unusual novelty. Flowers of soft rose-pink deepening to rose-purple toward the outer edge. Each, 80c; 3 for $2.15; 10 for $6.80.

WHITE CALLA (Aethiopica). Old-fashioned well known White Calla or Lily-of-the-Nile. Each, 70c; 3 for $1.90; 10 for $6.00.
